This Agreement enters into force for an acceding state as of the date of receipt by the depositary of the last approval notification by the Contracting Parties.

3. Dispute Settlement Procedures

Disputes and misunderstandings between the Contracting Parties on the interpretation and/or application of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled by way of consultations and negotiations.

4. Relation with Other Trade Agreements.

The Agreement does not establish any specific relation with other trade agreements.

5. Institutional Framework.

Coordination and management of the process of formation and functioning of the CEZ at the intergovernmental level shall be conducted through the Council of the Heads of States (hereafter – CHS).

The Contracting Parties’ votes in the CHS shall be allocated according to the principle “one state – one vote”. Decisions of the CHS shall be adopted by consensus.

The CHS shall entertain the following powers:
- to identify the perspectives of further integration within CEZ;
- to control the implementation of the Complex of major measures on establishing the Common Economic Zone;
- to ensure application and adherence to the basic principles and measures applied in the process of establishing CEZ.
- to formulate trade and economic policy towards third countries;
- to adopt decisions on the accession of new Parties to the CEZ;
- to set targets on unification of customs and tariff and competition policy of the Contracting Parties to the CEZ and to review reports of the Commission;
- to make other decisions on the principal issues of functioning of the CEZ;

In order to ensure proper functioning and development of the CEZ the Commission within its competence shall:
- ensure realization of goals and tasks of the CEZ;
- make decisions and draw conclusions on the issues related to achieving the goals and performing the tasks of the CEZ;
- draft legislative acts, methodological materials and other documents required to achieve the goals and to perform the tasks of the CES;
- perform other duties.

IV. Other Information

The Common Economic Zone shall be established on a step-by-step basis, taking into consideration the possibilities of multi-level and multi-speed integration.

The Contracting Parties, which have fully implemented the measures of preceding stage of the Complex of major measures on establishing the Common Economic Zone, shall move to the next stage of integration.
